Gospel group to present at Vilmar

SALTLIGHT, a local gospel group, will present a gospel concert at St. John's - Vilmar on Sunday, March 12 during the 10 a.m. morning worship service.

The SALTLIGHT band is from the Cedar Valley area. They play and create music to glorify God and point people to the truth of the Gospel message. Matthew 5:13-16 calls us, as Christ-followers, to be the salt of the earth and the light of the world, which they hope to display through their music.

They sing some contemporary, traditional, and country gospel. Many of their songs are originals, written by their lead singer, Darla Erskine, and arranged by the group. The songs tell stories of common feelings and circumstances that give those listening an opportunity to relate, reflect, and respond in worship. Though none of the members are related, their love for music and for Jesus are two things they have in common. They are more than a band; they truly are a family, and they find it a joy to be involved in each other's lives, in every season.

For more information visit saltlightmusic.com.

On March 12, the morning offering will be a "love offering" for the group (unless marked otherwise).

Lenten Devotional Available

The NALC has released their 2023 Lenten devotional, “Loved and Freed.” As we enter the ancient season of Lent, you are invited to walk with Jesus through His journey of sacrifice and triumph — from His baptism to His crucifixion and finally to His resurrection on Easter Sunday — where we find ultimate love and freedom. The theme of this book is inspired by the opening verses of Revelation 1:5-6, which give us a beautiful picture of the incredible love and freedom we have through Jesus Christ. As we read through these devotions, may we be reminded of the love and freedom we have in Christ and be empowered to love and serve others in the same way.

How to receive the devotional:

- Printed copies are on the table in the narthex.
- To receive a daily text or email, text “ReadingTheWord” to 24251.
- To listen to the podcast, search “North American Lutheran Church” everywhere podcasts can be found.
- Monica will also share the NALC’s daily Facebook videos on Vilmar’s page.

March Mission: During March, our mission and outreach project will be the NALC Disaster Response Flood Buckets. Buckets are available in the narthex. Items needed to fill each include:

- 1 jug bleach (1/2 gallon or smaller)
- 2 large trash bags
- 1 roll paper towels
- 2 rags
- Comet or scouring cleanser
- Pine Sol or liquid cleaner
- Scrub brush
- Gloves: 1 pair each of rubber, leather, and cotton gloves (all size large, preferably)

The filled buckets are due to the church by Sunday, April 2.

Disaster Response Kits: The NALC Disaster Response also collects items for Health Care Kits, Kitchen Kits, School Kits, Bibles, Prayer Books, Quilts, Blankets, and other miscellaneous items. More details about each kit have been posted on the bulletin board in the narthex. Vilmar Women's Fellowship will be collecting any of these items throughout the year, so any items for these projects may be brought to the church at any time.

Wells of Inspiration: Thank you to everyone who has donated to the Liberia, Africa – Wells of Inspiration mission in February, and for those who helped and supported the soup fundraiser and bake sale. With everyone's generosity, the project has already raised a considerable amount of money that will be used to build the wells and the learning center, as well as provide rice and supplies for the villagers. Please continue to pray for this mission, as Clint and Amy Seehusen, Marc and Jennifer Seehusen, and Teta Ross, prepare for their trip to Liberia this month to continue sharing God's Word and building relationships with the people there.

AED Training

St. John's – Vilmar will host two AED training sessions on Sunday, March 19, at 9 a.m. and 11 a.m. The training will be led by Tammy Fleshner. The council encourages everyone to attend one of the trainings, as it is important that everyone know how to use the AED should a situation arise.

Weather Cancellations

Reminder about our procedure for weather cancellations: We will continue to post on KWWL, KLMJ, Facebook, and our website. We have to be conscious of how far our guest pastors and leaders have to travel, when making the announcement, so if the weather is questionable, please make sure to check these sources before traveling to the church. If you are ever wondering, feel free to call Monica Edeker at 319-939-7348.

Lenten Season

The idea of fasting for Lenten season goes back to the early church. It wasn't fish they avoided; that was a much later idea from the Roman Church. The early church fasted based on local customs of the regional bishop. Even then there was much debate among the bishops about how much to fast, how long to fast, what days were to be fast days.

Today, fasting has gone out of vogue. We look at the Roman idea and scoff at it and then scoff at the whole concept. But there are things we can more profitably fast from than food. How about a fast of known bad behavior? We all know our own bad habits better than anyone else, except our spouses, of course. Think of one or two and determine to identify it when you see it coming in to play, and fast from it. Easier said than done, but all fasting is that way.

Then there are known sins. We love them, and we hold fast to them. They are not just habits; they are direct violations of God's Word. In a survey taken at a Christian men's convention, over fifty percent of men in church leadership admitted to viewing pornography on at least a weekly basis.

That was an extreme example, but it reflects that sinful practices are common in our churches. Using the Lord's Name in vain is one, and it is a direct violation of one of the Ten Commandments. If we examine the Ten Commandments, do we find other things that are part of our daily life, or weekly life? How about remembering the Sabbath and keeping it holy? I would love to go to church, people say, but there is just too much to do on Sundays. Excuses don't negate sin's condemnation.

And finally, there are sins of omission. These are not Ten Commandment sins, but they are direct violations (sins) regarding other commands in Scripture. When God says, "Do this" it is a sin not to do it. Those are sins of omission and they are the poisons of Satan to undermine our spiritual life and health. Our weekly Lenten services will concentrate on these "Omissions". We can learn to fast from them, not just during Lent, but all year long.
