Beyond Words

"Likewise, the Spirit helps us in our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but that the very Spirit intercedes with sighs too deep for words."

— Romans 8:26

Dear Friends,

There are experiences in life that are simply, "beyond words." It might be the absolute breathtaking beauty of a new born baby in our arms. Maybe it is the magnificent expanse of the horizon at dawn or dusk with its artistic colors and paintbrush sweeps that continually change before our very eyes to bless us. Then there is the Lord's breath that whispers melodies through the leaves of trees opening up a new world to awaken us.

And when our world shifts, crashing in upon us, we experience life beyond words, too: the loss of our dear loved ones ... the concern when a loved one is so sick and we can't take it upon ourselves or fix it for them ... the witness of horrific, unconscionable acts against another, causing them great harm.

Beyond words.

Much of life is a journey within the reality of beyond words. Conveying the depth of what we think, feel and experience often leaves us speechless. It is a humbling experience to be sure, and sometimes frustrating, and even frightening at times. We have a need to connect with others, to feel and to be understood, so words for expression are so important to us. Yet, at times words just seem to cease and a void is very present.

When life is beyond words, it is a comfort and blessing to know that the Spirit of God speaks on our behalf. Because sometimes, it feels as if our prayers just come up short and we are searching for how and what to pray.

We have just passed through Lent and Holy Week. The enormity of this time in the church year is beyond words. Even more so, when we realize that these are not empty words in an old book, but the words read from God's Holy Word are true and timeless, and for each of us. The depth of humbleness and honor; shame and guilt; forgiveness and joy; love and peace; hope and promise are truly beyond words.

Praise and thanks to you, Lord Jesus Christ and for the abiding presence of your Spirit who knows us and prays on our behalf.

In Service of Our Risen Lord,

Tamara J. K. Keen, Pastor

Thank You

Our Lenten through Holy Week Journey was made much more meaningful with the help of so many willing helpers with worship. Readers, musicians, extra bulletins, and behind the scenes people setting up worship space (altar paraments, holy communion, banners...) and making worship flow smoothly with the unique services, the mid-week cooks and cleaning-up ... it was ALL very appreciated. Your work is not unnoticed.

"Whatever you do, work heartily, as for the Lord and for others." – Colossians 3:23

Upcoming Opportunities

Walk With God!

Walking group will meet at 5 p.m. on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays at Wilder Park at the Shelter House. There will be a brief devotional and prayer, and then everyone is invited to walk at whatever pace you'd like and for however long you'd like. If you have questions, talk to Rhonda Edeker.

Greetings from the Vilmar Gang

On the first Sunday of each month, you are invited to join us in making and sending cards to our shut-ins, children, and members. We will meet in the basement from 3-4 p.m. each month, starting Sunday, April 7. If you have questions, please talk to Rhonda Edeker. The main focus of this club will be an outreach ministry to connect with our members through written messages in the cards each month. All are welcome!

Adult Pastor's Class

"Thy Word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path." – Psalm 119:105

Deepening our faith through study is incredibly beneficial. It develops our relationship with the Lord and gives us guidance in living life. An interest has been expressed to have a Pastor's class for adults. The prime time of Sunday morning may not be available, but there are 7 days in a week with 24 hours, so what works for the most of us? Let's figure that out on Sunday, April 14 during refreshments following worship. Some suggestions were given in our last newsletter. Certainly, they are not limiting. If you have thoughts or questions, please contact Pastor Keen at 316-655-3306.

Vilmar's Wilder Weekend – Family Camp

Information about the weekend of worship at Wilder Park (Friday Aug. 23 — Sunday, Aug. 25) has been posted in the March Herald. If you are interested in reserving an RV spot or a cabin, please talk to Kurt Roose.

One For the Lord

"And they devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers." – Acts 2:42

And so we begin! Some have expressed a desire to share a group of single women to meet for mutual support and the enjoyment of doing activities that are more fulfilling with another. The initial plan is to meet once a month. The group will discuss more at this gathering.

Mark your calendar for Wednesday, April 24, at 11:30 a.m., at The Rustic Brew (117 First St. NW, Hampton). We will meet in the back room, have devotions, order food, converse and discuss future plans for us. Please know that your friends are invited to come! An idea of how many plan to attend would be helpful for us, as well. Questions and ideas are welcome – let Pastor Keen know, 316-655-3306.

Singspiration Sundays

"Worship the LORD with gladness; come before him with joyful songs ... For the LORD is good and his love endures forever; his faithfulness continues through all generations." – Psalm 100

Rarely do people get to be in public places and sing together, except for the National Anthem at some games and in church! So, let's take advantage of the day! We all have songs we are longing to sing. The Easter Season is a wonderful time to celebrate the joy of our salvation through Jesus Christ. Come ready to offer a hymn suggestion on Sunday, April 28 for our first regular Singspiration. We are aiming to do this on the months when we have five Sundays.

Jr. Lutherans

Kids in 4th, 5th, and 6th grades are invited to join the Jr. Lutherans youth group class on Wednesday evenings from 6-7:30 p.m. at Diane Hummel's home. Supper will be provided.

Outdoor Clean Up

The annual outdoor clean up has been scheduled for Saturday, April 13 beginning at 9 a.m. We need many hands to help spruce up the property for the year. Please bring rakes, trimmers, and other tools to help with the work. Donuts will be provided!

Easter Lilies

We welcome Easter lilies to help beautify our sanctuary for Easter Sunday. If you would be willing to share a lily with us, please bring it to the church by Saturday, March 30 (the day before Easter). You may leave them in the narthex of the church, and we will arrange them throughout the front of the church. Please mark them with your name, so you can collect your's after the worship service. Thank you!

Women of Faith

We are starting a new women's Bible study group called "Women of Faith." The group will meet on the fourth Sunday of the month from 2:30-4:30 p.m. at the parsonage. We will watch episodes of the first season of "The Chosen," and discuss the accompanying study guide. Our first meeting will be April 28. All are welcome.

150th Anniversary

We are beginning to think about Vilmar's 150th Anniversary (1879-2029). We are looking for volunteers to be a part of a committee to help work on projects, events, and other celebratory stuff for our sesquicentennial. If you would be interested in being a part of this committee, please talk to Pastor Keen.
